

Iron County Register

IRONTON, MO. - FEB. 4, 1909.

E. D. AKE, EDITOR.

VOLUME XLII. NUMBER 34.

NEVER before was the Congressional Record such interesting reading.

If there is no fraud in the Panama Canal job, there is some mighty tall lying going on. Eliminate the basic negation, if you like, and the remainder of the sentence still is without successful refutation.

THE Legislature, with seven Democratic majority, last Monday seated Gmelich, Republican, as Lieutenant-Governor. If the majority had been Republican, and a Democrat had been contesting, it would have taken evidence of his right mountain high to have given him his place—and then it would not have been done.

THE venerable Republic says that the raise in U. S. official salaries is all right, and cites in evidence that the British judges get $25,000 a year. If "it's English, you know," I suppose that settles it, for it seems to be the ambition of Americans to be as near like their cousins across the water as may be. Somewhere about one hundred and fifty years ago the tendency was the other way.

How generous and unselfish the act of Uncle Sam in enforcing, with armed marines at the polls, a fair election in Panama last July! But our Republicans will go down to posterity as the evangelists of "a free ballot and a fair count." They wear in their button-holes the emblem of Political Purity, and the man who intimates that they stole the Presidency in 1876, is a liar and a scoundrel, and the truth is not in him. Selah!

So long as "technicalities" were eliminating Painter votes they were of grave import; but when they begin trenching on Gmelich's alleged plurality, they must give way to "the voters' intention." The Globe-Democrat has a self-comforting way of looking at things. The "Old Politician," an "Ex-Confederate," aged six years when the civil war ended, ought to be on deck now. What hole has he crawled into? As he has pulled it in after him, I greatly fear its location is lost to enquiring posterity.

THE papers say that the druggists are at Jefferson City with their "little bill." They want the State to enact a law prohibiting all persons except licensed druggists from selling patent medicines. The petitioners allege that some patent medicines are rank poison and it endangers the public to have the ordinary merchant dispensing them. To a thick-skulled layman like myself this reasoning does not appeal. I must first have it demonstrated—I must be "shown" how a pizen drug in the hands of a country merchant is transmitted into a panacea when handed over the counter by a licensed druggist—before my powerful influence can be given to passage of the proposed law.

THE greatest of all newspapers is the DAILY GLOBE-DEMOCRAT, of St. Louis. It has no equal or rival in all the west and ought to be in the hands of every reader of any Daily paper. It costs, by mail, postage prepaid, DAILY, INCLUDING SUNDAY, one year, $4.00; 6 months $3.00; 3 months $1.20; DAILY, WITHOUT SUNDAY, 1 year, $4.00; 6 months $2.00; 3 months, $1.00; SUNDAY EDITION—a big newspaper and magazine combined, 48 to 76 pages every Sunday, one year, $2.00; 6 months, $1.00. A subscription for the Globe-Democrat, these prices, is the best possible newspaper investment. Send your order TO-DAY, or send for FREE SAMPLE COPY to Globe Printing Company, St. Louis, Mo. See special offer of the "Twice-a-Week" issue of the Globe-Democrat, TWO YEARS FOR $1.25, elsewhere in this paper.

Solons Hear Addresses on Tuberculosis.

(St. Louis Republic.)
JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 28.—Senators and members of the House of Representatives, at 2 o'clock this afternoon, assembled in the house and listened to addresses by Dr. J. L. Eaton, of Bismarck; Dr. Wm. Porter of St. Louis, and Dr. Luckey, of Columbia, on the subject of tuberculosis. Dr. J. T. Miner, a member of the House from Lewis county, presided and introduced the speakers. Much interest was manifested and all seemed pleased with the result of the work of the State Sanatorium at Mt. Vernon.

From Goodwater.

The weather here during the past month has been capricious. The greater part of the time it was quite mild, but at other times it varied from zero weather to beautiful spring-like days.

On the 11th inst., a 12 inch snow fell here. It was the only noteworthy snow-fall we have had this winter. Consequently the wheat crop suffered from both the dearth of moisture and the lack of protection from alternate freezing and thawing, and the prospects for a good yield of that cereal this year is far from flattering.

Except during the cold snap the weather was exceptionally good for all out door employments.

The sawmill at Goodwater has been stopped during the extremely cold weather.

The representatives of the following named firms called on our merchant during January: Witte Hardware Co., Vulling Grocer Co., Hargadine McKittick Dry Goods Co.

On business came here: Louis Johnson and Frank Hays, of near Belgrade; James Thompson, of near Mann; Edgar Turner, of near Sunlight; Geo. Willhite and Fred Wood, of Tolu.

On business went: J. M. Lucas to Dillard; Otis Carl and Benjamin Wood, to near Bellevue; Claude and Carl and Mrs. E. A. Jennings to Belgrade; James Merritt, Alex. Abney and J. O. Scott to Quaker.

Visiting came: Preston Lucas and family, of near Brazil, Mo.; Mrs. E. J. Armstrong and son James, of Hopewell; Romey Martin, of near Irondale; Fred Helms, of near Adam, Mo.; Miss Amanda C. Henderson, of near Goodland.

Visiting went: Jas. O. Scott and wife and Miss Annie Duncan, near Tolu; Mrs. R. Erbschloe, near Peoria and Belgrade; J. A. Payne and wife, near Adam; Mrs. Geo. Williams, F. M. Mayberry and Mrs. J. O. Scott, to Desloge and Flat River; Marion Maberry, wife and two daughters to near Goodland; J. F. Merritt and wife, to near Peoria.

Our school was closed on the 26th instant.

A hard rain on the evening of the 28th inst., was followed by a blizzard, accompanied by snow, which lasted until 5 A. M., of the 30th instant.

In Memoriam.

(Leadwood Banner.)
The death angel came to the home of Mrs. Mary A. Vance on January 19, 1909, and claimed her as his own, bringing relief to her from much suffering from rheumatism, which she had patiently endured for several years. Mrs. Vance was born June 7, 1857, and in early life was converted and united with the Missionary Baptist church with which she remained until about two years ago, when she changed her views as to the church of the bible and its doctrines, and until death expressed her most profound and sincere belief in the doctrines of the Church of God. One year to the day, prior to her funeral she presented the church in Leadwood with a very nice pulpit bible, saying it was a monument to her love for the church, and she hoped it would be the means of pointing many souls to God. She leaves two sons, W. N. Blankenship of Elvins and J. M. Blankenship of Leadwood, with many other near kindred and friends to mourn her death, but not as those who have no hope. Funeral services were held in the Church of God Bethel, Leadwood, at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon by the writer, and the remains were laid to rest in the Leadwood cemetery.
